

Dear Ruhaan,

I hope this letter finds you basking in the well-deserved glory of your recent success! I am thrilled to extend my heartfelt congratulations on achieving a phenomenal 95% in the Class 12 board examinations.

Your dedication, hard work, and intellectual prowess have truly shone through. Securing such an impressive score shows your commitment to academic excellence and your ability to rise to challenges.

I clearly recall the late-night study sessions and your firm determination to perform your best in the Board Examinations. I am confident that this success is just a glimpse of the many achievements that lie ahead for you.

I look forward to celebrating your success in person and hearing about your future aspirations. May this achievement drive you towards even greater heights and you continue to excel in the upcoming academic journey.

Once again, congratulations on this outstanding accomplishment! Wishing you luck in your personal life as well!!

Love and Best of Luck,
Shaurya

Leverage
edu