

Independence Day Anchoring Script PDF for Students in English

Anchor 1: Good morning to the honourable Chief Guest, Respected Principal Mam/Sir, teachers, and my dear friends. I (student name), of class _____, am delighted to welcome you all to an extremely special school morning assembly on the occasion of the 78th Independence Day.

Anchor 2: And I'm (student name). It is a pleasure to join you all as we gather here to pay our tributes to the bravery and sacrifices of Indian freedom fighters. They dedicated their lives to granting the gift of freedom to future generations.

Anchor 1: You are right (Anchor 1 name). The occasion of Independence Day is not just a holiday. Instead, it is a celebration of our culture, values, and history that binds us together with a patriotic spirit. So, let's start the festivities by seeking the blessings of the almighty.

Anchor 2: I invite (student name) to kindly come on the stage and lead us in the prayer.

[After the prayer]

Flag Hoisting Ceremony

Anchor 2: Thank you (student name). Moving forward, it is time for one of the most important events of the day, the flag-hoisting ceremony. I would like to request the chief guest of our cultural program and all the dignitaries to come onto the stage and unfurl the National flag.

Anchor 1: Now, I would like to request all the students and teachers to stand and salute the National Flag. Let's sing the National Anthem with pride and respect.

[National Anthem ends]

Anchor 2: Thank you, everyone. Please take your seats. As we raise the flag high, let's take a moment to remember the stories of courageous freedom fighters and our nation's fight for independence.

Chief Guest Speech

Anchor 1: I now invite our honourable chief guest to address us with a speech.

[Speech ends]

Thank you so much for your motivational words, sir.

Student Speech and Cultural Performances

Anchor 2: The struggles, hardships, and courageous dedication of our freedom fighters allow us to live a life of freedom today. The significance this day holds for the people of India cannot be explained in words alone. To shed more light, I would now like to invite on stage (student name) from class ___ to deliver a speech.

[Speech ends]

Thank you (student name). That was indeed a heart-touching speech. As we continue with our celebrations of Independence Day, let us now welcome our dance performers from Class 9 and Class 10 with a huge round of applause.

[Dance performance ends]

Anchor 1: Wow, that was a brilliant performance. The energy was truly contagious. Let's keep our spirits high and energy flowing. Next up, we have a skit to demonstrate the Indian freedom struggle. Please welcome students of ___ with a big cheer to take us back into the historical chapters of India.

[Skit ends]

Anchor 2: It was truly inspiring. Our students beautifully illustrated the journey of Mother India to freedom.

Anchor 1: Yes, indeed. Next up, we have a brain teaser session for you all. Let's test our knowledge with a fun quiz on India's Independence Day. We have (student name) from class ___ as our quiz master to conduct the quiz. Let's see who knows our country the best.

[Quiz ends]

Anchor 2: Wow, what a fun quiz! With this, we have come to the end of our morning assembly. Thank you everyone for your enthusiastic participation. Let's keep our heads high and uphold the values of freedom, unity, and integrity. Jai Hind!

Anchor 1: As we wrap up our Independence Day celebrations, we would like to extend our gratitude and thanks to everyone present here.

Anchor 2: A special thanks to our chief guests and dignitaries for igniting the patriotic spirit and motivating us with their inspiring words. I would also like to extend my thanks to students for entertaining us with their extremely talented and wonderful performances.

Both anchors: Jai Hind!
