

Gandhi Quotes About Leadership

Gandhi's basic ideas about leadership revolved around serving the needs of others and not controlling them. He dedicated his life to raising his voice for the people in need. Moreover, Gandhi rejected violence and advocated passive resistance to achieve change. Here are some Gandhi quotes about leadership to learn more about the essence of his leadership.

1. I will not let anyone walk through my mind with their dirty feet.
2. It's easy to stand in the crowd but it takes courage to stand alone.
3. Strength does not come from winning. Your struggles develop your strength. When you go through hardship and decide not to surrender, that is strength.
4. Power is of two kinds. One is obtained by the fear of punishment and the other by acts of love. Power based on love is a thousand times more effective and permanent than the one derived from fear of punishment.
5. A leader is useless when he acts against the promptings of his own conscience.”
6. The best leaders are those most interested in surrounding themselves with assistants and associates smarter than they are.
7. An eye for an eye only ends up making the whole world blind.
8. A small body of determined spirits fired by an unquenchable faith in their mission can alter the course of history.
9. The greatness of a nation and its moral progress can be judged by the way its animals are treated.

10 Quotes on Leadership by Mahatma Gandhi for Students

Like his many other philosophies, quotes on leadership by Mahatma Gandhi contained the essence of non-violence and leading by example. For him, leadership was not about being authoritative over others. Instead, he emphasized a leader must stay connected with the masses and achieve peaceful resistance and conflict resolution. Here are some of the most popular quotes on leadership by Mahatma Gandhi.

1. Be the change that you wish to see in the world.

2. The best way to find yourself is to lose yourself in the service of others.
3. You must be the change you want to see in the world.
4. I suppose leadership at one time meant muscles, but today it means getting along with people.
5. Constant development is the law of life and a man who always tries to maintain his dogmas in order to appear consistent drives himself into a false position.
6. There goes my people, I must follow them, for I am their leader.
7. A sign of a good leader is not how many followers you have, but how many leaders you create.
8. A leader is useless when he acts against the promptings of his own consciousness.
9. The difference between what we do and what we are capable of doing would suffice to solve most of the world's problems.
10. Your beliefs become your thoughts, your thoughts become your words, your words become your actions, your actions become your habits, your habits become your values, and your values become your destiny.