

Anchoring Script for Gandhi Jayanti in English

Anchor 1: Good morning, everyone! A very warm welcome to our honourable Chief Guest, Respected Principal Sir/Mam, teachers, and fellow students. I [student name], of class [Class].

Anchor 2: And I'm [student name] from class [Class]. We feel honoured to welcome you all to this special school morning assembly on the occasion of Gandhi Jayanti.

Anchor 1: Today, we have gathered here to celebrate the birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi, also known as the Father of our Nation. His strong beliefs, principles, and values continue to inspire generations.

Anchor 2: You are right. His messages of non-violence, truth, and peace are as relevant in today's world as they were during the Indian freedom struggle. Accordingly, every year 2nd October is celebrated as Gandhi Jayanti to remember his struggles, sacrifices, and dedication to liberate India. In 2024, India will be celebrating the 155th birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi.

Anchor 1: Let's begin this morning assembly by seeking the blessings of the Almighty. I request (Name of the person or group) to please come onto the stage and lead us into a prayer. Let's all join our hands.

[After the prayer]

Anchor 1: Thank you (Name of the person or group). That was soulful and a great way to start the day.

Anchor 2: Next, I would like to call (Student's name) to deliver a speech on the occasion of Mahatma Gandhi Jayanti. Please come onto the stage and enlighten us about his life, struggles, and contributions to India's independence journey. Let's welcome him/her with a big round of applause!

[After the speech]

Anchor 2: Thank you (Student's name). Gandhi's life is a leading example for all of us to stand by the truth.

Anchor 1: Now, we have a very special performance from the students of class [Class]. I would like to request students to please come onto the stage for a skit on Mahatma Gandhi's Dandi March, one of the most important events in Gandhiji's struggle for India's independence.

Anchor 1: Thank you, everyone, for this inspiring performance. Dandi March was a historical event in the history of India. It challenged the British government's oppressive tax rules but also instilled a spirit of self-reliance in India.

Anchor 2: Now, let us move on to some interesting activities. Today, we have a special quiz on the occasion of Gandhi Jayanti. I would like to request all students to be seated on your chairs and raise your hand if you want to answer the question. And here is the best part- every right answer wins you a chocolate.

Anchor 2: I would like to welcome (student name) onto the stage to conduct the quiz. Please give him/her a big round of applause everyone.

[Quiz Ends]

Anchor 2: Thank you (student name) for that educational quiz. A big congratulations to all the students who answered the quiz questions correctly. We hope you enjoy your chocolates!

Anchor 1: As we conclude today's morning assembly, I would like to thank each one of you for making this morning a success. Let us all take a moment to reflect on Mahatma Gandhi's message of Ahimsa, peace, and unity. May we continue to learn from his teachings.

Anchor 2: I would like to extend my heartfelt thanks to the respected Principal Mam/Sir, all the teachers, and fellow students.

Both anchors together: We wish you all a very happy Gandhi Jayanti. Jai Hind!
